MIAMI CONFERENCE MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETY

Founded in 1887. In forty-seven years has paid sixty-three death claims. Entrance fee $1.00, annual dues $1.00. Mortality assessment $2.00. When balance in treasury is above $600, assessment after first one in a conference year will be omitted. All members of Miami Conference and their wives are eligible and are urged to join, by sending entrance fee to the secretary. The society pays $200 death benefit on the death of each member. Any member who has paid into the society $200 is excused from further payment of mortality assessments.

"Well done good and faithful servant."

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

The service was opened with an organ prelude by Mr. Norman Jones. Bishop A. R. Clippinger announced that the Miami Conference was convened in its one hundred and twenty-sixth session and read appropriate Scripture. Rev. E. E. Saul led in the invocation.

Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Rev. C. S. Smith read from I John and I Peter.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger introduced the communion service with an address on "Fellowship of the Saints." His text was Mal. 3:16, 17. "Fellowship is one of the most beautiful and meaningful words of our language, and one of the great and rich privileges and experiences of life. Three things bind men together: a common love, a common fear and a common task. By all these Christians are bound together. Friendships in the church are among life's great joys and treasures. The church is a school of brotherhood and love. As we share and live in love with each other, Christ comes to add his presence and blessing. God is with us when we are together in love. The communion service is a feast of our common remembrance of Jesus, and our fellowship. We eat together as brothers. "Brethren, let us love one another for love is of God."

Rev. W. C. Niswonger led in a sincere prayer of thanks and consecration. Dr. D. T. Gregory, assisted by the district leaders, distributed the elements. The people ate and drank together with thanks and humble faith.

The congregation sang "Mighty God, While Angels Bless Thee." Bishop A. R. Clippinger introduced the memorial service and announced the death of Mrs. Earl Stockslager. Rev. C. E. Fryman read the Report of the Committee on Memoirs. Dr. W. I. Underwood brought words of honest praise of the spirit and service of Mrs. Stockslager. "She was a quiet, peaceful, gentle, kindly and sincere Christian. Her life called others to Christian faith and living. She adorned her faith. She has gone to add a bit of beauty and grace to our Father's home." Luella Conn and Mrs. O. E. Flynn sang, very effectively, "Sunrise Tomorrow."

The roll was called by the secretary. Letters were received and announced from G. T. Powell, J. G. Howard, D. D. Dutton, Robert Copeland, C. E. Hetzler, A. E. Bittner and M. W. Mumma. Report was made that Rev. R. B. Ditmyer was in a hospital in Cincinnati seriously stricken because of an automobile accident. The secretary was instructed to write him expressing sympathy and good will. The name of D. D. Dutton was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Rev. Bruce Behney, newly elected professor in Bonebrake Seminary, Dr. H. H. Dutton of Akron, Rev. H. C. Schiering of Parma, Ohio, were introduced. Dr. D. T. Gregory introduced the student pastors who are serving charges in Miami Conference.

By motion the main room of the church was made the bar of the conference. The program as printed was adopted. Dr. Fred L. Dennis, pastor of First Church and Mr. W. C. Arthur, lay delegate, made announcements regarding entertainment. Reverends F. L. Dennis and O. O. Arnold were excused for funerals for the afternoon. Rev. M. B. Klepinger was named to act as secretary for the afternoon session.

Dr. B. F. Lamb, executive secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches, made report of the work of the council. He called attention to the persistent effort being made by the Roman Catholic Church to secure tax money for the support of parochial schools. Through the diligent effort of the Ohio Council of Churches, this proposal has been defeated seven times. The fight in this matter is not yet ended. He called for more loyal support of the council, to make possible continued effort in this and other things that the churches of Ohio can and must do together.

Dr. Lamb was applauded by the conference, and the work of the council and of the secretary was commended by Bishop Clippinger.

A motion to adjourn was carried. Rev. S. L. Brill pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was opened by singing "Guide Me, Oh, Thou Great Jehovah," with W. I. Underwood leading. W. J. Fox read from I John, and D. E. Gillispie led in prayer. The hymn, "I Am Listening," was then sung.

S. E. Rasey read the report of the Conference Board of Trustees. It was approved.

Miss Ella Hamilton read the report of the Council of Administration. The report was adopted.

Dr. D. T. Gregory read the report of the conference superintendent, giving a comprehensive and detailed account of the work of the year. The report was adopted.

A partial report of the Committee on Boundary and Finance was read by J. P. Hendrix, secretary. Following a motion that the report be adopted, the secretary offered the following item as a substitute motion for items 2, 3, 4, and 5: "That the conference superintendent be employed full time at a salary of $3500 per year." The substitute motion was discussed by Reverends Duckwall, Turner, Roberts, Benzing, Niswonger, C. R. Smith, Nichols, and Bishop Clippinger. Bishop Clippinger called for a standing vote. The substitute motion was lost. The original report was adopted by vote.

The report of the Committee on Candidates for the Ministry was read by Rev. E. D. Gregg and was adopted.

The Bishop ruled that hereafter the chairman be the secretary of each committee.

Rev. E. S. Comrey read a partial report of the Committee on Conference Relations. It was adopted.

Election of conference superintendent was held. A Board of Tellers was appointed, consisting of M. B. Kidwell, J. B. Henry, Ralph Tinsley, Ira Clark, C. A. Benzing, Roy Miller, and O. A. Stutz.

Rev. J. P. Hendrix read the report of the Committee on Nominations, Part I. The report was adopted and ordered printed.

Rev. F. H. Willard, pastor of the Wayne Avenue Evangelical Church in Dayton, was introduced, and brought fraternal greetings from our sister denomination.

Rev. I. E. Jenkins read a report of the Committee on Publishing Interests. Following the address on the Publishing House, the report was adopted.

Dr. J. W. Owen, editor of Sunday School Literature, gave an address on behalf of the Publishing House. He stated that the House now operates as a separate institution apart from the office building, but has assumed part of the indebtedness of the office building. While there is an improvement in the commercial work of the House, yet the business with the various churches continues too low.

Copies of the new church hymnal were shown. The House offers to assist churches in plans for financing the purchase of these hymnals.

L. G. Ludwick was awarded a ribbon as the only Telescope quota winner in Miami Conference.

Dr. W. E. Snyder, editor of the Religious Telescope, was introduced, and spoke concerning our denominational paper.

Dr. J. A. Lyter, associate editor of Sunday School Literature, was introduced and spoke briefly. These visiting brethren were given advisory relations.

The Board of Tellers reported as follows on the election of conference superintendent:

Number of votes cast, 115; number of votes necessary for election, 58; D. T. Gregory, 95; J. P. Hendrix, 6; F. L. Dennis, 5; W. I. Underwood, 3; W. T. Frank, 1; C. E. Fryman, 1; L. M. Hohn, 1; W. C. Niswonger, 1; S. E. Rasey, 1; E. R. Turner, 1.

Adjournment with prayer by G. W. Kopittke.

TUESDAY EVENING SESSION

Following an organ prelude by Mr. Norman Jones, Dr. W. I. Underwood led the congregation in singing several hymns. Rev. Philip Deever read the One Hundred Third Psalm, and Rev. A. C. Witham led in prayer.

The mixed quartet of First Church sang impressively two selections, "Dreams of Galilee" and "Rock of Ages."

Dr. W. T. Frank, who presided, introduced Dr. Fred L. Dennis, the pastor host, who welcomed the conference, and spoke briefly of First Church history.

Mrs. Dale Phillippi represented Miami Branch and drew lessons from historical lore.

Dr. Daniel E. Brownlee, secretary of the Dayton Council of Churches, brought greetings from the hundred churches of the city. He referred to the accomplishments of the council and set forth some of the problems faced by the united church.

Rev. O. O. Arnold, conference secretary, responded to these greetings in his usual spirit. He spoke of the annual session held in First Church twenty-six years ago, when he became a member of the conference. In a beautifully worded discourse on the name "Miami Conference of the United Brethren in Christ," he lifted the hearts of his hearers to a greater love for and appreciation of their heritage and blessings.

Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of Otterbein College, gave an address showing the development and place of the Liberal Arts college in America. He showed that the church-related college is a unique institution. It has a distinct field of service in providing high minded leadership in local and national problems. There is great need for the emphasis of religion in this whole matter. Because of its freedom from state domination, it has an unusual privilege in making such emphasis.

J. H. Mayne was invited to bring a word of greeting. He spoke feelingly of Otterbein College.

The benediction was pronounced by E. R. Turner.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "The Doxology." Rev. W. C. Andreas led in the morning prayer.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger brought the devotional message. He spoke on "The Higher Life," using as a Scripture lesson, the record of the vision and call of Isaiah in Isaiah 6:1-5, "There is little hope for the satisfied person. The call of Christ comes to all of us, "Come up higher." Isaiah entered into a higher life, when he saw the Lord, his own sin and weakness and the sin of his people, and saw God's need of a man and a messenger; and gave himself to fill that need. Such vision and call and consecration should be in the experience of each of us. When obeyed, vision and call lead to higher and larger life in service and in fellowship with God. God's call is not just to a vocation but to a life. God needs consecrated folks in all occupations. Entire consecration is the way to blessed and triumphant and successful and Godly living." He closed his address with prayer of surrender to God's call to larger service and higher life, and of earnest petition for the stirring of our churches by the call and the Spirit of God.

The conference ministers' quartet: Reverends Underwood, Gregory, Dennis and Bevis sang, "Go Ye into All the World."

The minutes of Tuesday's sessions were read by the secretary and by Rev. M. B. Klepinger who served as secretary pro tem for the afternoon and evening sessions. The minutes were approved.

The following were introduced and granted advisory relations: Dr. V. O. Weidler, secretary of Home Missions and Church Erection; Rev. A. W. Ballinger, member of Sandusky Conference, now a member of Otterbein Home; Dr. M. I. Webber, director of Adult Work; Dr. O. T. Deever, executive secretary of Christian Education; Mr. E. E. Ullrich, general church treasurer; and Dr. A. T. Howard, president of Bonebrake Seminary.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger stated that Rev. W. R. Hughes would not be able to attend the conference because of ill health. The secretary was instructed to write him and also to write Rev. G. R. Powell who was also detained because of illness.

Ballots were cast for conference officers (Section 2). Rev. S. E. Rasey presented a resolution calling for the appointment of a commission to secure facts in regard to the comparative economy and efficiency of the part time and full time plans of conference superintendency; and to present these facts at the next annual conference. The resolution was adopted. The following were named as members of this commission: S. E. Rasey, D. A. Puderbaugh, M. D. Kidwell, C. W. Snyder, Roy D. Miller.

Rev. L. G. Ludwick brought report that Rev. R. B. Ditmyer is improved a bit today.

Rev. Roy D. Miller read the report of the Committee on Foreign Missions. Rev. Orville Covault read the report of the Committee on Home Missions and Church Erection. These reports were adopted.

Dr. A. T. Howard spoke on "Spiritual Forces Cooperating in the Missionary Enterprise." "The forces that work in and through men in the world wide work of the Christian mission are: the Christian's desire to express and to share the joy of his religious life and experience, the vision of need and sin that awakens pity, the promises that quicken hope and the Christian's love toward individuals and groups; and the Christian faith in Jesus Christ and His gospel as the cure for the troubles of men, and the one solution of the problems of the world. But above all these urges is the command of Jesus Christ, and the call of the Spirit of God living in the souls of men, 'Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel'."

The conference sang heartily, "Publish Glad Tidings."

Dr. V. O. Weidler spoke on "Present Day Requirements in the Home Field." Before his address he gave a word of kind greeting and appreciation to a former schoolmate, Rev. C. W. Shoop. In his address he said in part, "We live in a new day. Inventions have increased physical power and emphasized material life. We have and want and need many things. We are tempted to live with things and for things. We face a dominant materialism. Religious freedom has been perverted into irreligion. Tax supported schools throw their influence on the side of the agnostic and pagan view and way of life. We are reaping the harvest of this influence. We are a most lawless nation. Last year in the United States, 350,000 people were committed to penal institutions. America's materialism, agnosticism, apostasy and wickedness are the greatest enemies of our effort and the greatest handicaps to missionary work around the world.

"For this day we need an effective ministry and a serving church. We must make each church a life giving center for all the people of the community. Our people, our youth, our country and our world demand a new consecration and faithfulness and sacrifice, and a new zeal in bringing souls to Christ and in bringing Christ into the life of the church and the world. This task is the mandate of our Lord."

Dr. D. T. Gregory presented and distributed the booklet, "The Program of Activities," the leaflet "Our Commission," a mimeographed sheet, "Churches in Contrast," and a covenant form for a pledge for forward steps in giving to the Lord. He urged every pastor to secure and use these materials. He challenged pastors and people to trust and honor God with their tithe; not to test God; but to do our part as Christians and stewards. God will honor and reward us if we do. We go forward with God or back without Him. God wants us to go with Him in a new consecration and a firmer faith, to a more joyful experience and a greater victory."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger commended this call for advance in personal covenant fellowship with God in matters of money and things.

The Board of Tellers made report of the ballot, and by this report the following were declared elected: Recording secretary, Rev. O. O. Arnold; statistical secretary, Rev. M. B. Klepinger; treasurer, Rev. C. B. Boda; stewardship secretary, Mr. O. A. Stutz; conference trustees, Rev. S. E. Rasey, Rev. W. I. Underwood; historical committee, Dr. J. P. Landis, Rev. W. C. Niswonger.

Mr. J. A. Lyter called attention to the book exhibit and to accounts. Announcement was made of an illustrated lecture to be given by Rev. J. A. Robinson at 6:00 p. m.

The conference adjourned with prayer by Rev. Ira C. Clark.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The conference sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Dr. S. F. Daugherty quoted Scripture. Dr. C. W. Brewbaker led in prayer. We sang "May the Lord Depend on You," with Frederick Miller at the organ.

Mr. O. A. Stutz gave his report as stewardship secretary. He recommended the organization of stewardship study classes and the circulation of stewardship books and leaflets. The report was adopted.

Dr. J. W. Owen spoke on "The Printing Press and Missions." "Missions is telling the gospel story anywhere. The press furnishes the Bible, which is the basis of all Christian missions. Millions of copies of the Bible are printed and distributed every year. The press also furnishes much other Christian literature; sermons and expositions of the Gospel, tracts and books and periodicals that carry Christian truths into every land and to every pupil. Many great leaders were converted and called out by the printed word. The press also furnishes a medium for directing and promoting the work. The printed page inspires to service and guides in the service."

Dr. M. I. Webber spoke on "Christian Education and the Spread of the Gospel." "Sixty million in America are outside of the church. Seven hundred million in the world have not yet heard the name of Jesus. Over half of the children and youth in America are without any religious instruction. Facts like these should stir us with a hunger to bring men to Christ and Christ to men. Christian education is the effort to bring the Christian gospel and truths to folks and to fit and inspire us all to more effective Christian living and service. We must continually improve our schools, our Sunday schools, our homes, and every factor for training in Christian life and service."

Dr. Webber presented "Worship Pathways" and urged its use for Sunday-school worship services. This little book sells for twenty-five cents and may be secured from the Board of Christian Education or the Otterbein Press.

Miss Kathryn Wolfe of the Liberty Church sang "I Shall not Pass Again This Way."

Mrs. J. B. Showers, president of Miami Branch of the Women's Missionary Association spoke on "Christian Stewardship, a Factor in Missionary Growth." "The name steward was first applied to guards of cattle. It came later to be used for any one who managed property for another and was accountable to the owner of this property. The Christian application is that God is the owner of all. Private ownership of the earth is a pagan idea. If God is owner of all things and of me; I am his agent and representative and steward. Our business is to manage his property for his purpose. We must be serving His children and building His Kingdom. A good steward enjoys his stewardship. He finds life in surrendering and reaps the joy of those who serve. He has found that stewardship is the management of all life for God. The good steward will pay a tithe as a symbol of God's ownership; and will set aside for God's service a share of time, as a symbol that it is all His. He will toil and ask no reward except to know that God calls him faithful. He will be a conductor of God into the lives of men and the affairs of the world.

"The pulpit must dare to call men to stewardship. The joy and the way of stewardship must be taught. Seventy per cent of our church membership are ineffective and unfaithful. Have we made it so easy that we have lost things, and they have missed the way of stewardship and of life?"

We sang "Jesus Calls Us." Bishop A. R. Clippinger called every one to put into practice the counsel of the afternoon meeting.

Rev. W. C. Niswonger was excused for a funeral. Thirty copies of "Worship Pathways" were sold. Rev. E. D. Bragg led in the closing prayer.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

The session was opened with an organ prelude by Mr. Norman Jones. Rev. G. P. Campbell led the congregation in singing "Wonderful Words of Life" and "Hide Thou Me." Rev. Leonard Broadstone read from the book of Job, and Rev. Walter Miranda led in prayer.

The ladies' trio of First Church sang sweetly "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand" and "I Would Be True," touching the hearts of the congregation.

Rev. Harvey G. Clark introduced Dr. V. O. Weidler, secretary of Home Missions, who delivered an address on "The Christian Conquest of America." "Home missions has always been identified with the frontier; and today it still works on new frontiers facing various problems of social life. One frontier is the great group of unassimilated Americans, the foreign-born who cling to the traditions of their native land. Another frontier is the new freedom that is assumed by youth. Seventeen million young people of school age in the United States are not under the influence of the church. It is an indictment against the church that she turns her back upon the thousands of juvenile delinquents. Home Missions recognizes the all-sufficiency of Jesus in enabling the church to meet these problems."

Dr. C. W. Shoop, missionary to China, spoke on "World Reach of the Christian Faith." He said that our great need is to rid ourselves of geographical bias. Some are more adjusted to far-off vision; others to life near at hand. Each in itself is but half complete. The mission task of the church is a world task, and there are no geographical boundaries. He hurled a challenge to every missionary-minded person with the words: "Be Christian where you are." There is today in China a young Christian movement which is in the adolescent state of self-assertion. Yet it looks to the West for sympathy and cooperation as it grows into the strength of maturity.

Benediction was pronounced by M. I. Comfort.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

The organist played and again we sang "The Doxology." Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "Crown Him with Many Crowns." Rev. L. B. Venatta led in prayer. We sang "Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on "Spiritual Things." He read from John 14 and Romans 8. "This is a materialistic age. We see and know and seek things. Science is today revealing the reality of the unseen. Man has a twofold nature, physical and spiritual. We are of the earth and of God. There is a continuous conflict between the flesh and the spirit. Joyful, blessed living demands that triumphs of the spiritual. Men are hungry for something spiritual. Things do not satisfy. Spiritual life needs spiritual food. Sermons and services become cold and meaningless without the spirit. The Holy Spirit comes into cleansed hearts. He comes in answer to prayer. We receive His spirit when with clean hearts and believing prayer we wait together for Him. The Holy Spirit is Comforter, Helper, Guide, Teacher, Counselor, Prompter and Leader; word and voice and love of God in the soul. Let us wait on the Lord for His spirit."

After an earnest prayer for the presence and help of the Holy Spirit in all our lives, the ministers' quartet sang "Come, Spirit, Come." The minutes of Wednesday were read and approved. Rev. J. P. Hendrix read the report of the Committee on Nominations, part 2. The report was adopted and ballots were ordered printed.

Rev. M. I. Comfort read the report of the Reading Course Faculty. There are sixteen licentiates in the conference and all have been in school during the year. The report was adopted. By this report Reverends George Oliver, Ivan E. Jenkins, Frederick Miller and Stanley Forkner and D. Robert Copeland were referred to the Committee on Elders' Orders.

Rev. J. D. Niswonder read the report of the Committee on Ministerial Pension. The report was adopted.

Rev. R. V. Pelton read the report of the Committee on the Christian Sabbath, and the report was adopted. Rev. J. Frank Royer read the report of the Committee on the Christian Home. Bishop A. R. Clippinger called attention to the factors in our present life that tend to threaten the breakdown of home and wholesome family life. The report was adopted.

Due to the illness of Rev. R. B. Ditmyer, there was no report on Otterbein Home. Mr. W. H. Cassel, treasurer of Otterbein Home, spoke on "The Outlook for Otterbein Home." He brought many encouraging and interesting figures and facts in regard to the finances of the Home. Assets above liabilities March 1, 1933 were $447,275.00, March 1, 1935 were $539,477.00. The total debt of the Home March 1, 1933 was $285,808.00. The bank debt or borrowed money for current bills March 1, 1929 was $52,500.00, on March 1, 1935 it was $6,900.00.

Otterbein Home is living within its income, and adding to assets and equipment without adding to debt. During the past year, by the generosity of Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Condo, the Phillippi Memorial Building was finished and equipped. The work of Mr. J. M. Cogan on securing special gifts has been very successful. Christmas offerings have increased more than fifty per cent in the past three years. If the present program and rate of increase is continued, Otterbein Home will reach the goal of entire freedom from debt before many years.

"The attitude toward the Home is better than ever. The Women's Auxiliary has been a great help. We ask every church and every pastor and every member to consider Otterbein Home a part of the work and service of the church. Plan early and prepare well for the Christmas offering. Put on the plays. Give everyone adequate opportunity to have a share."

Mrs. W. E. Snyder, president of the Otterbein Home Auxiliary, called the women to meet after dinner, and the ministers to support the women in every church.

Rev. Philip Deever presented Miss Betty Sriver, a senior in the Otterbein Home high school and alternate delegate to this conference. Rev. A. W. Ballinger spoke briefly, expressing thanks for what Otterbein Home is doing for him, and his desire to do all he can for the Home. He brought to the conference the greetings of Dr. W. R. Funk. Mr. D. A. Young, former superintendent of the Home, was presented and greeted the conference.

Mr. Geo. P. Werpup, representative of the American Bible Society spoke. Oct. 4, 1935 is the four hundredth anniversary of the printing of the first Bible in English. Churches throughout the world are being asked to celebrate this anniversary, by some observance between October 4 and December 8. Bishop Clippinger observed the faithful and appropriate observance of this anniversary.

Rev. M. B. Learish, of Johnstown, Pa., was introduced.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke informally and from his heart for the good of the conference and the church. "We have made some progress, but our gains are not large. The depression has brought no revival. There seems danger and some signs of a breaking down of church and conference loyalty and ambition. There is also a tendency to break away from the itinerant system that has been so important a factor in the life and success of our church. The way of life for church or individual is to work loyally and faithfully with the denomination. We succeed as we work together. Work faithfully. Report promptly. Help carry our common program to success."

Dr. C. W. Brewbaker commended the use of the little book, "Our Church" in developing loyalty to the denomination.

The ballot was cast for conference officers, Section 2. Word was passed that Rev. R. B. Ditmyer continues critically ill and all were called to pray for him.

Rev. E. S. Comrey read the report of the Committee on Conference Relations and the report was adopted.

Mr. J. A. Lyter called attention to the new church hymnal and to other books on display. The conference adjourned with prayer by Rev. G. P. Campbell.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The conference sang, "The Church's One Foundation." Rev. S. E. Rasey read from Psalm 84. Rev. Walter Miranda led in prayer. We sang "On Christ the Solid Rock, I Stand."

Rev. J. P. Landis, D.D., oldest living member of Miami Conference, last surviving member of the great quartet of Seminary professors, Drs. Funkhouser, Landis, Foust and Drury, was presented and addressed the conference. He spoke in part as follows: "I am proud and happy to be a member of Miami Conference. The personnel has changed entirely since I was handed my license by Bishop Glossbrenner in 1871. I thank God for the privileges and joys of these sixty-four years of fellowship and service. I am not young any more. I try to take care of my body. I study some every day. I have a couple of hobbies. One is astronomy and the other is anatomy. But marvelous as are the discoveries in these fields, I have come to believe and know that the greatest statement in the language, and the greatest truth ever grasped by the mind of man is 'God is love'. I hope the coming year will be the very best for you and for the church."

Ministers present who were students in the classes of Dr. Landis stood and applauded him.

Rev. J. A. Pantle was called on and told stories, recited a prayer and a couple of poems and led in singing a verse of "The Land of Beulah." Rev. Pantle always inspires and entertains.

Rev. E. C. Petry read the report of the Evangelistic Commission. The report was adopted. Rev. L. G. Ludwick read the report of the Committee on Elders' Orders. After Dr. D. T. Gregory had replied favorably for the conference to the questions as asked in the Discipline, by vote of the elders, the report was adopted, and Reverends Stanley Forkner, Geo. W. Oliver, I. E. Jenkins, W. Frederick Miller and B. Robert Copeland were recommended for ordination as elders.

Rev. C. B. Boda, conference treasurer, called on all ministers to secure blanks for use in remitting Benevolences. Mr. E. E. Ullrich, general church treasurer, made an informal report, which showed a gratifying increase in the total receipts of the Benevolent interests of the church.

Rev. Ralph Tinsley read the report of the Committee on Pastors' Reports and Records. The report was adopted.

The District Leaders gave verbal reports of the Every Member Canvass. Bishop A. R. Clippinger urged every pastor and church to care for and cultivate the non-contributing members. Something is vitally wrong, either in the present or the past, when a large number are taken off the roll of any church.

Dr. D. T. Gregory spoke in the interest of keeping a good and correct record of the church membership; and of diligence and care and love in dealing with folks in regard to their relationship to the church. "There is not much truth in the oft repeated assertion that churches are assessed more for the number of names on the roll. We strive to get folks into the church, and then are seemingly at fault in letting them lose interest, and then take the easy way out by dropping their names from the roll. We ought at least to go as far as the Discipline provides and for three years make faithful, loving effort to awaken interest. More mistakes are made by dropping folks than are made by retaining names."

Rev. D. C. Traylor, superintendent of Otterbein Home, was introduced and greeted the conference. We sang, "Praise the Lord."

Rev. F. W. Wilkinson, representative of the Anti-Saloon League, spoke on "Problems of Present Day Traffic in Alcohol." "The promises of the anti-prohibitionists have not been kept. The business of the bootlegger is bigger today than ever. Women and children are drinking. The roads are not safe because of drinking drivers. Church members are selling liquor. The makers and sellers of alcohol are making money, and homes and lives are being wrecked. There is great indifference and apathy in the face of these curses.

"The time is here to strike, to fight again the battle for the elimination of this traffic. Win men to Christ. Educate youth in regard to the dangers of alcohol. Uphold total abstinence as the only safe and Christian way. Plan and hold Local Option elections. Support the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U., and every cooperative effort for sobriety and safety for the people of our land."

Mrs. G. M. Mathews, whose husband was a beloved member of this conference and bishop of the church, was introduced and spoke kindly words, expressing her joy in the fellowship of Miami Conference.

The tellers reported the result of ballot, section 2. By this ballot the following were elected: Otterbein College Trustee, E. R. Turner, Anti-Saloon League Trustees, L. G. Ludwick, J. L. Armstrong; Member of Board of Westerville Training School, H. C. Hahn; Member of the Judicial Committee, F. L. Dennis; Conference Registrar, G. W. Duckwall; Members of the Ohio Council of Churches, D. T. Gregory, H. G. Clark, Mrs. J. B. Showers; Member of Board of Christian Education, L. M. Hohn. There being a tie in the vote for layman member of the Ohio Council of Churches, and the nomination of a lay member for the Board of Christian Education, having been omitted, the Committee on Nominations was instructed to prepare and have printed a ballot for the election of these two.

We adjourned with prayer by Rev. A. J. Furstenberger.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION

Dr. D. T. Gregory presided. Dr. W. I. Underwood led in a service of song. Rev. J. B. Henry read I Cor. 13. Dr. W. E. Ward led in prayer.

Dr. D. T. Gregory presented Mr. D. A. Puderbaugh, who as chairman of the judges reported the winning districts in the contests in church attendance, Sunday School attendance and benevolent payments.

The winning district in Sunday School Attendance was the Lewisburg District. Rev. E. H. Nichols, district leader, was not able to name the winning school.

In the contest in Church Attendance and Telescope Subscriptions, the Cincinnati District was winner. Rev. E. L. Smith, district leader, announced that the Willey Memorial Church was winner of the award of fifty hymnals as the winning church in the winning district. Rev. L. G. Ludwick, pastor of the church, and the delegate, stood and were applauded.

Dr. D. T. Gregory read a list of churches that paid more this year than last in Benevolences; and showed how the failure of some others to do as well as they did a year ago had cut down the gain that would have been made and in some districts had resulted in a net loss. He pled with every church, the coming year, to do its very best, and to make its share of the gain we ought to and can make together.

He then named the churches that have paid their Benevolence Quota in full for the past year. In this list is a small church and a big church, the church with the largest debt and a church with an active building program. There is no use for any church in any situation to say that it can't be done. He called the pastors and lay delegates from the six churches which had paid in full, to come to the front. These churches were Mt. Healthy, Oakwood, Beardshear, New Hope, Euclid Avenue and Fairview. He presented to each pastor and delegate, representing these churches, a beautiful rose.

The West Dayton District was winner of first place in the contest in payment of Benevolences. The cash award of sixty dollars was divided as follows: $25 to Fairview, $20 to Euclid Avenue and $15 to First Church. The members of these churches who were present, stood and were applauded.

The second place in Benevolences was won by the Lewisburg District and the cash award of $40 was divided, $17 to Verona, $13 to Pyrmont and $10 to Eldorado.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger made announcement that the one hundred dollars given as an award to the winning churches in the contest in payment of Benevolences, was the gift of Dr. D. T. Gregory. Dr. Gregory was warmly applauded. The suggestion was made that churches receiving this award use it in sending young people to training school, at Bonebrake or Westerville.

The Orpheus male chorus, under the leadership of Prof. O. E. Gebhart, gave an attractive program of vocal music. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. R. Smith.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION

The conference sang "I Love to Tell the Story," and "The Doxology." Rev. Earl Stockslager read Philippians 4:3-16. Rev. E. L. Smith led in prayer. We sang "Thou Thinkest Lord, of Me."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on "The Weary Heart." He read Psalm 116. "We all come to times of weariness and hunger. When burdens press, and we are weary and distressed, we ask, "Does God Care?" The tendency today is toward self-reliance and away from reliance on God. It seems men trust less in God and more in scientific formulas. But we still need, and perhaps more than ever, faith in God. We need to know that He cares. We are helped by the consciousness of His love and sympathy. We cannot and will not escape the hard places and heavy trials. We may have something better; the presence and help of a Loving Father in these experiences. There is a rest for the people of God, in the very midst of problems and trials. This experience is for all of us if we serve and obey and trust the Lord."

The ministers' quartet sang "I Am the Shepherd True." The minutes for Thursday were read and approved. The roll was called and ministers willing to travel were noted.

Rev. Ira S. Sweezey of East Ohio Conference was introduced. Dr. C.

W. Brewbaker and Rev. J. B. Henry were excused for funerals this afternoon.

Dr. Fred L. Dennis read the report of the Bonebrake Seminary Commission. By motion the report was adopted, and the Seminary Commission was reelected with Mr. W. A. Gilbert as an added member.

Dr. A. T. Howard, president of Bonebrake Seminary, spoke to the report. "I see the future with abounding hope. I see a growing unity and success. Bonebrake Seminary is the church, looking ahead and preparing for greater service tomorrow. We are preparing preachers to serve the folks and the church of tomorrow. Our primary interest is not grounds or buildings or money; but the spiritual needs of children and youth of our homes and communities, today and tomorrow.

"We do appreciate the loyal service and friendly spirit of Miami Conference. We know you will continue, loyally, to do your part.

"Dr. Bruce Behney and Dr. Walter N. Roberts have been added to the faculty. "We aim and hope to give theory and practice that will equip preachers for successful service. The bonded debt is being rapidly reduced. The Women's Auxiliary has given much needed and much appreciated service. Lack of a full Benevolence Budget has made it impossible to pay all current bills. The Cash Day Offering goes directly toward this need. Do your best on Cash Day."

Mrs. V. R. Sibila, president of the Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary, read her report of the purpose, plan and accomplishments of this organization. By motion this report is to be printed in the Minutes. Dr. A. T. Howard invited individuals or groups to donate new Hymnals to the Seminary.

Dr. Walter N. Roberts read the report of the Board of Christian Education. Dr. C. W. Brewbaker, newly elected director of Christian Education, called attention to the plan set forth in the Discipline for the organization and activity of a Board of Christian Education in each local church; and urged that every church organize according to this plan, and follow the conference program of activities. The report of the Board was adopted.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger reported that receipts for the Benevolences to date are about $800 above last year; but we have designated more than we did a year ago; and we need $514 of new and undesignated money by next Thursday to make the undesignated money the required two thirds of the total. He gave opportunity for churches or individuals to make pledges toward this $514. The amount of $254 was pledged at this session.

Rev. E. H. Nichols reported that the fifty hymnals go to the Clayton Sunday school. Visitors were introduced as follows: Reverends A. B. Cox, John Toy, W. F. Rutherford, and W. E. Jones of Southeast Ohio Conference; and Dr. J. E. Cromer, Mr. J. M. Cogan and Mr. I. E. Renner of East Ohio Conference. The ballot was cast for conference officers, Section 3. Rev. John Toy led in closing prayer.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The conference sang, "No, Not One." Rev. G. R. Jacoby read from Acts 3. Rev. Elias Cross led in prayer. We sang, "I Am Trusting Lord in Thee."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger recommended for reading in times of distress and disappointment, the book, "The Stirred Nest." Dr. J. King Gibson, Chaplain of the National Military Hospital was introduced, and Mr. William Francis stood and was greeted.

Rev. J. P. Hendrix read the report of the Committee on Boundary and Finance. A motion was made and carried to amend the report by eliminating the item which would set the time for conference in the middle of September. The report was adopted as amended.

Rev. E. H. Nichols read the report of the Committee on Policy. On motion the report was adopted. Rev. C. W. Snyder read the report of the Statistical Secretary, bringing a summary of the reports for the year and a comparison of this year with last. The report was adopted.

Rev. C. B. Boda read his report as conference treasurer. Rev. Harvey Hahn read the report of the Auditing Committee. The report of the Auditing Committee and then the report of the treasurer were adopted.

Rev. J. L. Armstrong read the report of the Committee on Resolutions. The report was adopted.

The appeal for pledges to pay undesignated money to the conference treasurer for Benevolences before the closing of the books for the year was continued; and the pledges reached a total of something more than the $51 needed. There was a spirit of glad and almost hilarious giving.

Dr. W. I. Underwood, on behalf of the Clifton United Brethren Church in Cincinnati, invited the conference to hold its session in 1936 in that church. By motion the invitation was accepted.

The tellers reported on ballot No. 3, and by this authority of this report Fred Lammers was declared elected lay member of the Ohio Council of Churches, and Mrs. E. R. Turner, member of the Board of Christian Education.

Dr. O. T. Deever presented and sold copies of "Our Church Program." Rev. Arthur Peden presented the Parish Paper Plan of church publicity in which he is engaged.

A motion was made and carried that licentiates, serving charges in the conference be granted the privilege of conducting the ceremonies of the church.

A motion was made and carried that the minutes for Friday be approved without reading.

Dr. D. T. Gregory announced that the ministers of the Cincinnati District had gathered an offering of sympathy and good will and Christian sharing, for Rev. R. B. Ditmyer; and gave opportunity for others to have a part in this good deed.

The following were named by the Bishop to constitute the commission authorized by the vote of the conference, to study the comparative efficiency, economy and acceptability of the two plans of superintendency and to report at the next annual conference: S. E. Rasey, D. A. Puderbaugh, M. D. Kidwell, C. W. Snyder and Roy Miller.

Rev. J. B. Henry was named to serve as a member of the Reading Course Faculty.

Rev. L. B. Venatta, Rev. O. O. Arnold and Rev. A. C. Witham expressed their heart-felt thanks to brethren of the conference for sympathy and prayers and service they had given each during periods of illness.

A motion was made and carried that the conference adjourn at the close of this evening's service. Rev. C. McNelly led in the closing prayer.

FRIDAY EVENING SESSION

Dr. Fred L. Dennis presided. Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "Day Is Dying in the West." Rev. N. D. Bevis read Isaiah 1:1-18 and Matt. 16:1-12. Rev. Dr. Fred L. Dennis led in the invocation. The First Church choir, under the leadership of Luella Conn, sang the anthem, "Bless the Lord, Oh My Soul." Rev. L. M. Hohn led in prayer. Dr. F. L. Dennis expressed for the people of First Church their joy in the privilege of having entertained the conference. He then introduced the offering which was lifted for the conference. The choir sang "Praise Ye the Name of the Lord."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger preached the conference sermon. His subject was "Our Crisis and Our Conquest." The text was "Can ye not discern the signs of the time?" "The whole world is in turmoil and change and confusion. Confidence has gone. Unemployment and strikes and unrest and fear mark the industrial and economic world. War threatens in Asia and Africa and Europe. In Russia and Germany and Mexico, religion faces the threat of extermination. In America there is a sense of failure and distress. Voices are calling to capitalism, communism and fascism as the way out.

"We are in a great struggle. We cannot dodge it nor hide from it. Poverty curses in a world of plenty. Problems of racial and national relations threaten us. Moral standards are being lowered. Godlessness and paganism sweep our land. The wages of sin is death. History records its sure curse. All the evils that destroyed Rome are seen in America today. Can we not see the signs of the times? These evils and dangers are a threat and a challenge. We are called to cry aloud and spare not, to call men to repentance and to God. Things will not come out right unless we help God make them right. The hope of America and of the world is the Christian church, living and proclaiming the message of Christ. 'Ye are the salt of the earth.' We have equipment and plans and organization; but often we fail for indifference and carelessness. To all of us comes the word of the Lord, the call of a great task, the call of a great need that for the sake of tomorrow we should study and live and share His word."

The minister's quartet sang "Onward and Upward." Bishop A. R. Clippinger, assisted by Dr. D. T. Gregory and Dr. F. L. Dennis ordained the following as elders in the ministry of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ: Frederick Miller, B. Robert Copeland, Stanley Forkner, Geo. W. Oliver and Ivan E. Jenkins.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger read the report of the Stationing Committee and closed the conference with prayer.

Reports Relating to Conference Administration

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Bishop, pastors, delegates and churchmen here assembled, and to all our co-laborers throughout Miami Conference: Greetings.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God."

This brief report makes no attempt at a detailed record of the many phases of work undertaken during the year by our pastors and people. It simply summarizes the success we have experienced in our united efforts as fellow-workmen in the Kingdom of God. Down through 126 years men and women have been under the directing guidance of the Holy Spirit. They have been divinely impelled to give their hands and hearts to certain kingdom tasks. During these recent years it has been our choice privilege simply to have been numbered in their company and to follow in their train. Surely none of us can come into this annual session without being conscious of the heavenly cloud of witnessing spirits by whom we are surrounded and overshadowed.

For whatever has been accomplished we give all the glory and praise to God our Father. For our failures, mistakes and neglects we pray His forgiveness.

CHURCHES AND DISTRICTS

We have 113 churches in the conference. These are grouped into seven districts as shown in the tabulation below.

Benevolences. This represents our efforts toward world-evangelization and the help we can render to others. Souls who have heard the Master's great commission to make disciples of all nations enter into united endeavor along this line for the primary purpose of training and sending forth leaders to bear witness to the saving power of the Gospel of the living Christ.

During the year we have had a definite objective in this phase of our work; namely, that all churches not meeting their quota in full last year would seek to surpass that record this year, and further that every church would make an earnest effort to meet the quota in full.

The treasurer's report eventually will indicate how far we have come toward attainment of the goal on this score.

Church Debts. Cheviot, Oakwood, Beardshear, Oak Street, Verona, Greenville and Union City have had splendid success in making large payments on the debts of these particular churches.

Eaton has been in a campaign for funds with which to completely liquidate their debt of $900. At this time they have $744 of this amount in hand, and soon after conference adjournment they will be in position to burn the note that has been a burden to that congregation.

Church Improvements. Clifton, Clough, Jacksonburg, Utica, Belmont, Bowlusville First Church, Liberty, Olivet, Greenville and Union City churches have undergone redecorating and repairs of varied kinds costing considerable sums.

Institutes and Rallies. These fall and spring get-togethers on the part of leaders in the various districts have proved themselves a very splendid method for studying more fully our program and purpose as workmen in the business of winning and helping souls toward a new day. The Board of Christian Education workers, and the women and girls of the Women's Missionary Association and Otterbein Guild deserve much credit for the inspiration and instruction thus focused upon our thinking in these district gatherings.

Missionary Convention. This annual assembly of women and girls again brought together hundreds of these unselfish souls for the purpose of reviewing and forecasting their own achievements and objectives. Their sincere, self-denying labors during the year resulted in a total of $6,103 by the Women's Missionary Association and $1,560 by the Otterbein Guild placed upon the altars for definite missionary enterprises. We do not hesitate to say that every church should have a missionary organization functioning among its members. It will cultivate a deeper spiritual life in the souls of those who give themselves to this call.

Parsonages. New and attractive parsonages have been or are being constructed at Mt. Healthy, Sulphur Grove and Ft. McKinley. All of these are splendid and comfortable homes, and they will mean much in the efficiency of pastors who serve these churches. We want to commend the people of these fields for this noble step.

Spiritual Life and Soul Winning. All our labors in the various organizations; all our efforts at increased interest and regular attendance in worship; all our contributions financially; and all our diligence and earnestness in prayer and study have been toward one great ideal; namely, the spiritual enrichment of immortal souls.

"Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples," said Jesus.

This is our business. Whether we have lent a hand to the missionary call at home or abroad, or given assistance to the program of preparing youth for leadership in some particular channel, or personally won another to Christ—all has been to the end that the Son of God might live in a regenerated heart somehow, somewhere.

Reports show that we realized 1422 conversions in our local churches during the year, and 1121 received into the church on confession of faith. God bless every church and churchman who have had part in this glorious victory.

Other victories in our various churches are reflected in the district tabulations that follow.

Average attendance of resident membership in morning worship was 39½%; at evening worship 23¾%; at Sunday school 53½% of enrollment.

Benevolences show 51% paid. You can compare your district or your local church to ascertain whether you have kept up with the conference percentages.

OUR MINISTERS

Eighty-two ministers have given leadership to the work on our various fields. Sixteen of these have been students who served as part time pastors. All have rendered excellent service. To these noble workers much credit is due for what is registered in our annual reports along the lines of spiritual growth and success.

Resignations and Appointments. Rev. L. G. Ludwick resigned the work at Zion shortly after conference last fall, and Rev. Albert G. Butz was assigned to the work.

Williamsburg Circuit was left to be supplied, and Rev. Mrs. Mary Adams was assigned to this field.

Rev. Dale D. Dutton resigned the work at High Street on March 1, and Revs. Stanley Forkner and Earl Winkler were appointed as co-laborers on that charge.

Rev. V. J. Waldron asked to be released from the work at Rossburg Circuit in June, and Rev. A. C. Mueller was assigned to the charge.

Rev. G. T. Powell was compelled to relinquish his work at Cherry Grove and Five Mile the first week in July, and Rev. G. W. Oliver has served the charge during these recent weeks.

Sickness and Sorrow. Critical illness has come to the homes of Revs. O. O. Arnold, R. B. Ditmyer, M. D. Kidwell, G. A. Campbell and G. T. Powell during the year. Brother Ditmyer is in the hospital at Cincinnati and will be unable to be with us in these sessions. Brother Powell writes that he cannot be present, which he greatly regrets. Let us remember them in prayer.

On June 22, death came to the home of Rev. Earl Stockslager and called his companion away. She was a noble and faithful helper in his work until impaired health compelled her to lay aside her duties. Our hearts are in fullest sympathy with him and the little daughter.

Quarterly Licentiates. Quarterly licenses were voted or renewed for the following: Mrs. Orville Covault at Ginghamsburg, Charles Silver at Piqua, Clarence Kimmel at Euclid Avenue, Robert Rider of Fairview.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That we make the denominational theme for this year, "Evangelism through Missions and Stewardship," our conference theme and give ourselves to the task of making it a realization in our churches throughout the entire conference.

2. That pastors obtain copies of the little leaflet, "Program of Activities," and use same to the fullest possible advantage in building a program for the local church during the year.

3. That our institutes this fall and the rallies next spring have our earnest efforts toward a large attendance. These are vital events in the instructional and promotional work and should have the ear and eye of every churchman who possibly can be gotten into same.

4. That church night programs and similar methods for instruction and inspiration to our people be given serious thinking and effort in local churches, both this fall and following the Christmas season.

5. That soul winning constantly be kept in the fore of our plans and endeavors. We must be fishers of men if we are to be followers of the Man of Galilee.

6. That Christian Stewardship, as an inseparable part of Christian living, be given its proper place and emphasis in our work.

7. That benevolences—that phase of our program by means of which we become missionaries, educators, world-evangelists, and co-workers with Christ in all parts of the earth—have careful and sincere planning for fuller realization in our churches. Toward this, the following steps are suggested:

I. A carefully conducted Every Member Canvass or some similar plan for giving our people information concerning our denominational work.

II. An energetic observance of the special periods designated by the General Conference as promotional occasions, with offerings to be applied on the budget quota.

III. Regular monthly remittance by every church to the conference treasurer as our standard.

IV. A solidarity-consciousness that will give to every pastor and church a feeling of the urgent need for all of us to do our individual part toward a worthy goal and standard as a conference.

APPRECIATION

No man could be surrounded with the kindly spirits and the willing hearts and the ready hands of the noble churchmen up and down Miami Conference, as we have been through these months without feeling quite keenly the debt of gratitude one thus owes. To everybody, everywhere, from whom the kingdom call and the conference work have had a response, our sincere thanks and whole-hearted appreciation are hereby expressed.

Once again we say that God has been good. The cares and duties incident to the work could not have been carried without His presence and help. To Him let our thanksgiving be rendered.

D. T. GREGORY.

COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION

Summary of Yearly Minutes

The following dates for the quarterly sessions of the Conference Council of Administration are here recorded September 17, 1934; December 12, 1934; March 11, 1935; June 21, 1935.

Problems not a few, and sometimes difficult of solution, have been faced by the Board throughout the year, but through faithful, persistent effort and a spirit of fine courage and optimism on the part of members of the Board, these problems have been for the most part satisfactorily solved.

An item or two of interest: The Board numbers 25 members, 11 of whom were present in every meeting, and 7 missing one meeting only. Four were absent from every session, and 16 visitors graced the sessions from time to time.

In the sessions held the following items were considered, and on motion, duly seconded, were voted:

1. That Mrs. Showers and her workers be supported in their effort to get a large attendance of girls at the Otterbein Guild Camp, and also in organizing societies in the yet unoccupied territory (30 churches in the conference not yet having Missionary Societies).

2. That Dr. Roberts and his co-workers in the Board of Christian Education be encouraged in the promotion of the Training School project in the more remote districts, as such districts ask for the five-night schools.

3. That churches having special missionary support hold these in abeyance until the end of the year, then permit them to bring up their per cent.

4. That special attention be given to the planned Home Missions program.

5. That the booklet "Our Church" be gotten into the hands of all pastors, so that they might be given all new members; District Leaders be made responsible for getting their pastors interested in this matter.

6. That we secure the services of W. C. May—a specialist in Stewardship lines—to present this interest in some of our churches.

7. That the Publication Board of the "Messenger" be re-elected adding Rev. M. D. Kidwell to the staff.

8. That the monthly reporting of attendances be continued—these to be published in the "Messenger."

9. That there be a Church Commission or some similar study group in every local church using as guides in their study process the little books "Our Church" and "Handbook on Evangelism."

10. That pastors put forth zealous effort in promoting Promotion and Rally Day services in order to re-enlist the largest number of people after the vacation period.

11. That there be well-planned worship services and at least one communion service during each quarter.

12. That there be a careful and diligent "Every Member Canvass," in order that our work, both locally and in general, may have a more systematic support financially during the year. A monthly basis of giving to be emphasized with every church contributing something toward benevolences.

13. That there be a faithful and unanimous observance of Promotional Events (as recommended by General Conference) for the purpose of giving information to our people, and for giving help to our benevolence endeavors as churches. Very definite plans for the observance of these days to be laid by each church.

14. That every church be encouraged and urged to complete our 100% objective—namely, every church plan for and promote the Seminary Cash Day and lift an offering toward our conference goal—$5,750.00.

15. That the Otterbein Home have our unanimous support as we come into the Christmas season.

16. That Otterbein College have our fullest consideration as we approach "Education Day" on February 10.

17. That we make the fullest possible use of "Telescope Month—December" for increasing the subscription list to this, our Church Magazine of denominational information.

18. That pastors be encouraged toward a helpful observance of the "Week of Prayer" January 6 to 13.

19. That "Evangelism" continue having our consideration and its proper place in our work through this second quarter—the season which is most fruitful in many places for revival activity.

20. That we re-emphasize our slogan—"Every Church Paying Something on Benevolences During the Quarter," and that we make it our aim to turn in a minimum of $2500 each month on this phase of our endeavors.

21. That we promote Education Day as a conference rather than through the Board of Christian Education.

22. That Rev. Hendrix and Dr. Dennis investigate rates for printing of "Messenger" in other companies. Subscriptions number about the same as last year. Pastors will no longer receive complimentary copies.

23. That Rev. W. P. Channon be given Ministerial Aid.

24. That the members of the Council be alive to the danger in the Parochial Bill now pending in the State Senate (this in March) and that they use their influence in helping to defeat same.

25. That ministers be urged to bring delegates from the various charges to the Branch Missionary Convention, May 1 and 2 at Springfield, but that the women share in transportation expense.

26. That the "Messenger" continue being published in Indiana since the cost in other companies is prohibitive at the present time.

27. That we seek to continue our seven per cent increase in benevolences during the last six months over the amount received during the same period last year, this bringing us to our set goal of 50% of the quota adopted at our last annual session.

28. That a "Victory Easter Offering" be planned and promoted in all churches as a means of bringing up benevolences and local current needs, and that little Lenten Offering Boxes be used wherever practicable. Where these cannot be used, let special envelopes be used for receiving Easter offering.

29. That Young People's Evangelistic Week (March 31 to April 7) be used to the best possible advantage for winning and helping our Young People in Christian activities and church life.

30. That Confirmation and Reception services for the children of catechetical classes be made a part of our Palm Sunday program with emphasis on helping these boys and girls to a larger appreciation of the church.

31. That Holy Communion and Good Friday services have a place in our Passion Week set-up, in anticipation of a glorious Easter together.

32. That Easter be made a day of spiritual rejoicing for our people in the most complete and impressive manner we possibly can arrange, giving our folk a better and fuller appreciation of the Resurrection of our Lord.

33. That our spring rallies have our attention immediately following Easter, with a splendid delegation of leaders and workers from every church.

34. That Young People's Anniversary Day, May 5, and Children's Day, June 2, be observed in proper manner and with offering for Christian Education.

35. That we designate the period of May 19 to June 9 as the time for making our "Every Member Canvass" in our churches. Let May 19 be the date of launching same. Then let us seek to have same completed by Pentecost on June 9, on which date we observe in a united service throughout the conference our last quarterly communion. Let us seek to make this service on Pentecost as full of meaning and significance for spiritual power in our lives as we possibly can.

36. That we encourage attendance of our young people and workers at Bonebrake Training School (June 17 to 21); also at Westerville Training Camp (July 1 to 12).

37. That our next council session be held during the week of our training school at Bonebrake Seminary.

38. That Rev. J. B. Henry represent Miami Conference at the Women's Branch Convention in Springfield May 1 and 2.

39. That $900 be Miami's goal for Young People's Anniversary Day offering, and an equal amount the goal for Children's Day.

40. That Robert Ryder and Edward Niswander be granted financial aid in pursuing their educational courses.

41. That the matter of financial aid as requested by Rev. Furstenberger be referred to the Trustees.

42. That benevolences for the Middletown Church be credited as undesignated funds up to the amount of $72.00.

43. That the joint report to the Board of Christian Education given by Dr. Roberts and Rev. M. D. Kidwell, the former on finance and the latter reporting the training school, be adopted. Ninety cots had been purchased (including mattresses) from the N. C. R. at a cost of $1.50 each. These cots were given to the Seminary with the understanding that they would be used during Training School sessions since the Training School has been permanently located at Bonebrake. A total of $169.00 has been put into permanent equipment this year. Two hundred twenty-two registered students were in attendance, six fewer than last year, but many of the pastors did not register. More work had been done than formerly, there having been 198 credits given as against 160 last year.

44. That the time for holding fall institutes be left to the conference superintendent and presidents of the Branch and Board of Christian Education.

45. That the bill covering the cost of 6180 communion cards sent out through the conference at a cost of $32.88 be allowed.

46. That Study Courses in the conference be carefully looked after before the opening of conference, August 20.

47. That the "Every Member Canvass" be completed in all churches.

48. That a final effort be made to bring up Benevolences to the 50% mark.
49. That reports be sent in early—August 5, 10 and 15 to be the time for pastors, district leaders and superintendent respectively.
50. That travelling expenses be allowed board members.

E. F. HAMILTON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Miami Conference Board of Christian Education seeks to serve the needs of the churches of the conference in three ways: (a) By suggesting a well-rounded program of activities in Christian Education for each local chuch; (b) By promoting the conference and denominational program of Christian education; (c) By providing such agencies as fall and spring rallies and leadership training schools and conventions to stimulate, educate, and inspire.

We give herewith a brief summary of the year's activities:

The adult division under the leadership of Dr. C. W. Brewbaker sought to awaken interest and activity in Adult Christian education through letters to adult directors, articles in the Miami Messenger, Conference Adult Convention on January 10. More than two hundred fifty attended the convention. "Christ in the Life of the Home" was the theme. Professor Fiske of Oberlin was the outside speaker. Two panel discussions were held. The offering at the convention practically provided for the expenses. Plans are now under way for a similar convention January 30, 1936, where the emphasis is to be on Bible Study, Christian Missions, Christian Stewardship, Evangelism and Fellowship.

The youth division under the leadership of Rev. Harvey C. Hahn aided by seven capable young people from the seven districts of the conference has been both well organized and quite active. The leaders of this division took a prominent part in the Fall and Spring Rallies, vigorously promoted Anniversary Day and Children's Day, and promoted attendance at the leadership training camps. The director conducted fourteen campfires, talked at twenty-three youth banquets, preached at eleven churches on young people's evangelistic night, talked to nine Christian Endeavor societies, taught at four schools and camps, spoke before seven youth conventions, besides giving personal counsel to many young people both by correspondence and personal conferences.

The children's division under the leadership of Mrs. Will Hopkins had a good year of activity. A key worker in each church and a leader in each district have done splendid work in promotion. The Children's Workers' Bulletin prepared by Miss Mary McLanachan is sent quarterly to all children's directors. Several Vacation Bible schools have been held. The outstanding event of the year was the Children's Workers' Convention at Fairview Church June 19, which was well attended and very helpful, all being enthusiastic and expressing a desire to have another next year. Leadership Training School had a good gain in the classes for workers with children, and forty-five students received credits.

Leadership training has taken on fresh impetus under the leadership of Rev. M. D. Kidwell. The following results prove this fact: A total of seven hundred thirty-one units in leadership training have been earned this past year by teachers, officers, etc., in the churches of Miami Conference through the following agencies: local classes, thirty-five units; Otterbein Camp, two hundred two units; Bonebrake Camp, one hundred ninety-three units; Dayton Community Training School, two hundred three units; New Madison School, twelve units; Oakwood School, sixteen units; Otterbein College, nineteen units; Bonebrake Seminary, forty-eight units; correspondence courses, four units. Several units were earned by pupils from our churches in Butler and Hamilton counties, but those records are not available at present. Certainly our continuous efforts along these lines are going to have a telling effect in Christian Education leadership in our churches.

Young People's Anniversary Day offering this year came to $630.74 as compared to $494.48 a year ago and $127.46 two years ago. The Children's Day offering came to $615.94 as compared to $437.69 a year ago and $259.44 of two years ago.

Finances: The Board purchased $17.00 worth of permanent equipment for Bonebrake Summer Camp consisting of ninety iron beds, seventy-three mattresses, a built-on piano box and a platform for the assembly services at the Seminary. We appreciate the fact that the Conference Trustees allowed us $75.00 toward this extraordinary expense. Our regular income has been $270.00 (appropriation). We close the year with a small balance of approximately $21.00 on hand after paying all bills.

Organization for 1935-1936: The newly elected officers of the Board for the coming year are: Rev. Walter N. Roberts, president; Miss Janet Gilbert, vice-president; Prof. Harold Boda, secretary; Rev. Murn B. Klepinger, treasurer.

The newly appointed directors are:

General Director—Dr. C. W. Brewbaker.

Director of Leadership Training—Rev. M. D. Kidwell.

Director of Adult Work—Rev. Roy D. Miller.

Director of Young People's Work—Rev. Harvey C. Hahn.

Director of Children's Work—Mrs. Will Hopkins.

We submit herewith our recommended program of activities in Christian Education. This program has already been adopted by the Conference Council of Administration as the Conference Program of Christian Education for the coming year. We commend it to every church as a guide.

REPORT OF EVANGELISTIC COMMISSION

We, your Committee on Evangelism, recognize the helpfulness of the various agencies of the church for the promotion of evangelism in soul nurture. However, we believe that the foundation principle of evangelism is the complete submission and surrender of the entire life of the individual to the will of God. The words of Jesus to Nicodemus "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" still remain fundamental to the Christian faith. Therefore, we recommend to the Conference Program Committee of 1936 that special time and place be given to evangelism and that some speaker with a challenging message for this conference be secured.

REPORT OF BONEBRAKE SEMINARY COMMISSION

The church fathers came slowly to a sense of the need of special training for ministers. It was in 1871 when our theological seminary conducted its first classes in the Summit Street United Brethren Church, Dayton, Ohio. Later a building was erected at West First and Euclid Avenue. This building served for a number of years, giving place several years ago to new buildings on a lovely campus in upper Dayton View.

Union Biblical Seminary—its original name—became The Bonebrake Theological Seminary, following a land grant by the late John M. Bonebrake.

The expansion program, including the site, buildings, and equipment was carried out at a considerable cost. A bond issue amounting to $525,000 provided funds. These bonds were retired as per schedule until some three years ago. Some conferences, including Miami, borrowed and advanced to the Seminary. But the depression caught up with us and we were forced to default on interest payments to the Mississippi Valley Trust Company, St. Louis, Mo.

Fortunately the trust company agreed to postpone action against the Seminary awaiting the quadrennial session of the General Conference of 1933. That body voted $50,000 per year for this quadrennium—for the payment of interest and principal of the bonded debt.

As a result, we are able to report that the bonded debt, which was $355,000 two years ago—with the deferred interest charges of many thousands more—has been reduced to $315,300, with all interest paid to March 1, 1935. On September 1, the next biennial payment will reduce the debt to about $298,000. We are on our way out of debt on the buildings.

The current operating budget of the Seminary stands at $49,000 per year. Cash Day receipts and the percentage from undesignated benevolences have been falling short of that figure. Consequently, salaries are in arrears, interest on annuities is due and unpaid.

In company with the other conferences of the church, Miami faces a new opportunity to undergird our Seminary with prayerful interest expressed in money.

Be it resolved, therefore:

1. That Bonebrake Seminary Cash Day be observed October 6 or 13.
2. That the conference goal be $5750.00—the same as for the past year, of which we raised 82.5%.
3. That the goal of each church be a sum equal to ten per cent of its benevolence budget.
4. That district leaders and pastors seek to organize women in our churches into chapters of "The Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary."
5. That we encourage the use of the Seminary Stereopticon Lecture by churches and groups of churches.
6. That we resolve to have every church represented in the offering this fall. To date no offering has been received from Bevis, Mt. Airy, Zion, Moore's Fork, Bloom Rose in Cincinnati district; Brown's Run, Middletown district; Pleasant Hill and West Manchester in Lewisburg district; and Weaver's Station in Greenville district. The three Dayton districts responded unanimously.
7. That we assure President A. T. Howard and his faculty associates of our genuine interest in their task, which is our task—through them.

THE SEMINARY COMMISSION,
FRED L. DENNIS, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PASTORS' RECORDS AND REPORTS

We, your Committee on Pastors' Records and Reports, have carefully examined and audited each successor's record.

We commend the ministers for their cooperation in presenting neat and well prepared records and reports to conference; all save two records balanced with the statistical reports of Reverend Snyder, and in both instances these discrepancies were explained by the pastors.

The books of the Rossburg Circuit, Mt. Airy and Bevis, and the Williamsburg Circuit were not in the hands of the committee.

The committee recommends:

(1) That all pastors use the Successors' Records prescribed by the Discipline.

(2) That all names be numbered consecutively.

Reports Relating to Personnel

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

Mrs. Myrtle Irene Stockslager, wife of Rev. Earl Stockslager, pastor of the Lewisburg and West Sonora United Brethren Churches, departed this life at her home in Lewisburg, Saturday, June 22, 1935, at the age of thirty-seven years.

Mrs. Stockslager's death came after a lingering illness due to tuberculosis. She made a valiant fight against the malady, but its insidious ravages continued until it finally depleted her physical strength.

Not long before her death, she was thought to have been somewhat better, but the weather conditions hastened her end.

Since entering the ministry, Reverend and Mrs. Stockslager have served the Antioch Church, the Columbus Avenue, Bowlusville charge, the New Madison-Savona charge, and the Lewisburg-West Sonora charge.

Those surviving are her devoted companion; her little daughter, Miriam Idella; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Emrick, of Germantown, Ohio; and three brothers, Clarence N. Emrick, of Dayton, Arthur L. Emrick, of Cincinnati, and Chester C. Emrick, of near Farmersville, Ohio.

Appropriate funeral services were conducted at Lewisburg, under the direction of Bishop A. R. Clippinger. Dr. D. T. Gregory, conference superintendent, and Rev. C. W. Snyder, of Piqua, Mrs. Stockslager's pastor during her early life, assisted with the service. Interment was in Roselawn Cemetery.

She was a most active pastor's wife, a devoted companion, a loving mother, a woman of great Christian faith and loyal devotion to her Lord and Master.

May the memory of her life be a continued blessing to all who knew her.

C. E. FRYMAN, Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY

The Committee on Candidates for the Ministry submit the following report:

That Clarence E. Kimmel, having satisfactorily passed the examination before the committee, we recommend he be received into the conference.

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, submit the following partial report:

That J. A. Robinson, S. F. Daugherty, Arthur P. Peden be continued in the present relations as evangelists at large.

That Louis O. Odon be received into Miami Conference subject to transfer from the East Ohio Conference.

That D. S. Eshelman, by his request, be granted the relationship of retired elder.

That G. T. Powell, at his request, be granted the relationship of retired elder.

That C. E. Hetzler, at his request, be granted evangelistic relations.

That Mary Adams, at her request, be granted evangelistic relations.

That Gordon Howard be continued in his same relation.

That Dale D. Dutton be dismissed at his own request.
That M. W. Mumma be continued in his present relation.

Committee:
E. S. COMREY, Chairman
C. R. SMITH, Secretary.

REPORT OF READING COURSE FACULTY

We, the faculty of the Miami Annual Conference Reading Course, beg to submit the following recommendations:

That Edward Niswander, Cornelius O'Brien, and William K. Messmer, who are now pursuing college or Seminary studies, be retained in the first year.

That Robert Eshelman and Robert Wellbaum, who are pursuing their studies, be retained in the second year.

That Philip Deever and Walter Peck, having finished the work of the first year, be passed to the second year.

That W. P. Channon be retained in the third year.

That Bryan Green, having finished the work of the second year, be passed to the third year.

That Orville Covault and Earl Winkler, having completed their work of the third year, be passed to the fourth year.

That George Oliver, I. E. Jenkins, Frederick Miller, Stanley Forkner, and Robert Copeland, having completed their Seminary work, be referred to the Committee on Elders' Orders.

M. I. COMFORT, Chairman,
E. C. PETRY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ELDERS' ORDERS

We, your Committee on Elders' Orders, submit the following report:

That Stanley H. Forkner, George W. Oliver, I. E. Jenkins, W. Frederick Miller, and B. Robert Copeland appeared before us for examination for ordination as elders and we therefore recommend them to this conference for ordination.

LEWIS G. LUDWICK, Chairman,
A. C. WITHAM
O. D. WELLBAUM

REPORT OF PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Over a long period of years, our church has earnestly endeavored to meet the spiritual needs of those it has been priviledged to serve. Many times our efforts have seemed fruitless, but still we have pressed forward.

Had it not been for the invaluable service rendered to the church by the Religious Telescope and our other publications, there is little doubt that our struggle would have been a discouraging one.

The Religious Telescope keeps our eyes on the Master of men, and our ears in tune with His Divine commands; and our feet upon solid ground, serving His children. Without this companion in our daily walk of life, many would have despaired of the Kingdom work.

It is therefore necessary that we not only read the Religious Telescope and its co-partners, but that we give our heartiest support spiritually and financially to the Otterbein Press, which under the leadership of Dr. J. B. Showers, is going "over the top" in meeting needs heretofore unmet.

The work done during the past two years and more by Doctor Showers speaks for itself.

Let us give due diligence in the subscribing to and the support of our church papers, and in so doing, put our own Publishing House "over the top" for our church and for the Lord.

I. E. JENKINS.

THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, but the seventh day is a sabbath unto Jehovah, thy God. For in six days the Lord made Heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it." Ex. 20:8, 9, 10, 11.

"Let the word of God dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs; singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord." Col. 3:16.

"He that is of God, heareth the words of God; for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God." John 8:47.

"Not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh." Heb. 10:25.

"He that heareth you, heareth Me; and he that rejecteth you, rejecteth Me; and he that rejecteth Me, rejecteth Him that sent Me." Luke 10:16.

"But let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things." Gal. 6:6.

"Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves." James 1:22.

This is the day which the Lord hath made; so we should rejoice and be glad in it.

It was designed to maintain public worship, to give rest to body and soul, and to prepare us for the eternal Sabbath in Heaven.

REV. R. V. PELTON.

THE CHRISTIAN HOME

The homes of our country are our greatest institutions. Collectively they are the dominating influence of our governments, of our civilization, of our churches. They are the focal point whence emanate character. They dominate life during the plastic period of childhood when character is being molded, and as the mold is cast so will the finished product be. Other influences enter in to help make or mar character but the dominating influence is the home.

There are Christian homes and there are unchristian homes, both of which are constantly sending their product into the stream of life. In large measure they neutralize each other. Great gains have been made in righteousness despite the pollution by evil environment but our greatest need is more Christian homes. When God sought a home for John the Baptist he chose a righteous home. When he sent his only son into the world he selected as his mother the purest of women. Observation proves also that the highest development of character comes from a Christian environment.

Therefore, each of us should constantly strive to keep our homes a place where God will make his abode, and where the hallowed influence of the spirit of life will be manifest, and where some part at least of the supreme love that Christ showed to both God and man will be shown to those with whom our contacts are made.

Having such homes of our own we will then be prepared to help other to a higher and better home life. May God hasten the day when the Christian homes of our land will exert the dominating influences in all the affairs of life.

J. F. ROYER.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH ERECTION

The whole task of the Christian church is to announce that Jesus Christ saves from sin, and to help others to accept this salvation. Therefore, wherever sin is found there is real need of missionary work.

Modern industry with its greed for gold and unconcern for human life; racial antagonism fostering jealousy and hate; the realm of international relations permitting war and its suffering; and the home life, broken by divorce and devoid of religious training; surely are great fields for the follower of Christ to sow His Gospel of Love. All possible methods for bringing the various peoples of our land, to a personal acquaintance of Christ as their Savior need to be used.

Our United Brethren Church in the family of religious denominations has done, and is now doing very commendable missionary work. We have sown seeds that have brought forth a real harvest of souls. Our inability to adapt ourselves to meet the needs of situations has been praised by leaders in other churches.

At the present time our Home Missionary Department is giving assistance to the limit of its resources to churches throughout the entire denominational area of service, with definite projects in twenty-three of the conferences. Partial support is being given to eighty-one home mission pastors and to seven home missionary conference superintendents. In addition to this there are seventeen workers in our Spanish-American mission field in New Mexico on the list of home mission workers, making a total of one hundred and two individuals working for this great department of our church. In seven of our conferences, namely, Oregon, Montana, Minnesota, Colorado-New Mexico, Oklahoma, Missouri and Tennessee, the Home Mission support includes both the part salary and the partial responsibility of appointing the superintendent.

With this great amount of work Home Missions merit our loyal support in finance, interest and prayer.

During the coming year with its central theme, "Evangelism through Missions and Stewardship" we strongly urge pastors and other Christian leaders to form study classes using "Missions at Home and Abroad" as their textbook. This book has been written by three of our leaders in mission work, and should be read by every member of our church.

Respectfully submitted,
ORVILLE L. COVAULT.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

The central theme of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ for the conference year 1935-36 is "Evangelism through Missions and Stewardship." As a result of that emphasis, we should witness during this year, marked advances in missionary mindedness and in actual missionary work and in the acceptance of full and complete partnership with God.

To that end, knowing that our Lord definitely commissioned his church to make disciples of all the nations, and to be his witnesses unto the uttermost part of the earth; and, knowing that, in compliance with that commission, we have an efficient missionary force working in our mission fields today; and, that these workers depend upon the churches in the homeland for spiritual and financial support; and, that that support is measured by the degree of interest and information and missionary zeal that the membership of the home churches has:

Be it resolved that the pastors and delegates here assembled pledge themselves to a missionary educational program consisting of:

1. A monthly missionary worship service in the church school, making use of the booklet "Worship Pathways."
2. A missionary reading circle composed of men and women, youth and adults, reading the latest and best missionary books as suggested by our Foreign and Home Mission secretaries.
3. Missionary information and inspiration from the pulpit from time to time during the year.

Respectfully submitted,
ROY D. MILLER.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL PENSION

In view of the fact that the Endowment Fund Campaign has been postponed until, in the judgment of the Board of Administration, conditions are favorable for its completion, little need be said now.

The 1933 General Conference adopted the following:

"We heartily commend the local churches that have begun the payments on their apportionments in the Ministerial Pension Endowment Fund, and strongly urge all local churches that have not yet done so to begin and continue their payments on their apportionments in the Endowment Fund until the full Endowment has been raised. We especially urge all the churches to pay at least one-tenth of their apportionment at the earliest possible date, that the increased income from the Endowment may be available to increase the pensions of the ministers already retired."

This year's report of H. H. Baish, general manager, is encouraging in that it reveals progress. The par value of investments and cash on hand totals $116,961—$57,000 of this amount is invested in such good securities that interest in full has been paid and no defaults are in prospect. The investment and cash in the contributory members' fund on June 30, 1934 amounted to $82,746. The last quarterly payroll contained two hundred fifty-one names. The total amount paid in pensions was $114,000, of which $5,930 was paid from the contributory members' fund and $108,000 from the Church Service Annuity Fund.

We hereby record our appreciation of services rendered by the general manager, H. H. Baish, and Pension Committee and pledge our continued cooperation.

J. D. NISEWONDER.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF BONEBRAKE SEMINARY AUXILIARY

The Women's Auxiliary is happy with the progress made by the organization during the year 1934-1935. The Auxiliary was organized for a definite purpose and is fulfilling that purpose—that of cooperating in the life of Bonebrake Seminary and the U. B. Denomination. The members are interested and enthusiastic because they are informed of the conditions existing, and the possibilities to be attained in the dormitory.

The organization has required workers—leaders, with vision and understanding, and followers without whom leaders would be helpless. These workers have been found in the Dayton churches. They come from Beavertown, Oakwood, Belmont, Oak Street, First Church, Otterbein, Euclid Avenue, Fairview, Ft. McKinley, Miami Chapel, Residence Park, and East Dayton.

Too much praise cannot be given to these faithful women who gave of their time and energy during the week of June 17-25, 1935. At that time, meals were prepared and served those attending the Training School of Miami Conference. The profits netted $467.45. This provided means to beautify the first floor corridors in the Dormitory. Through generosity of the painter to whom the contract had been given, and the paint dealer, the reception room was decorated.

At the beginning of this third year, a denominational wide extension program is being carried forward. The work of the Auxiliary will be presented in every conference in the five districts. Our aim is to have representation in every church, in the denomination. To accomplish this, the Ministers' Wives' Associations are being contacted. Then the message will be taken into every church. Miami's Association has gone on record to assist in this program.

In 1933 our coming together was the beginning; in 1934 our keeping together showed progress; in 1935 our accomplishments have proven, we are succeeding. May each one give thoughtful consideration and become a member. Individual membership is twenty-five cents per year. Group membership $5.00. May we make this year a banner year and keep the good work going.

MRS. V. R. SIBILA, President.

REPORT ON STEWARDSHIP

At the beginning of the conference year, it was suggested that we read Paulsen's book "It Is to Share" and that we establish Stewardship Leagues for the study and promotion of the spirit of stewardship of time, talent and of things.

The plan as suggested is as follows, that we establish classes for children, youth and adult to promote this work to be presided over by the pastor or such other qualified leaders as may be designated.

At the fall district rallies, the above plans were stressed at various places by Dr. Gregory, Dr. Roberts, or your secretary.

At our spring district rallies, stewardship had a prominent place, this time through the use of slides, which had been rented by Dr. Gregory from different sources of supply. These slides were fine from and educational standpoint, and emphasized in a new way, the principles of stewardship. Dr. Gregory had charge of these slides, commenting on each of them in his own masterly way.

We regret to state that as yet no report has been forthcoming from churches that have established these classes. We shall be glad for reports from the different churches that have established these classes and with what degree of success.

We believe that a good foundation has been laid, and that the coming year will register greater gains in the promotion of this work.

Recommendations of Stewardship Secretary

The Board of Christian Education has selected the following books to be used for classes in Stewardship:

Adults and youth—"Jesus' Teachings in the Use of Money"—Brown. Fifty cents.

Youth—"Giving is Living"—Boand. Ten cents.

Children—"Stewardship Stories"—Morrill. Fifty cents.

We recommend the following leaflets for your consideration: From the Layman, Chicago, Ill.—What We Owe and How to Pay it. Does the Tithe Pay? How to Tithe and Why. Is the Tithe a Debt?

From the Duplex, Richmond, Va.—Do You Admit? Is It Fair? Honest Now. It Got Me.

From our U. B. Publishing House, Dayton, Ohio—The Church's Commission, or Growth and Service—Babson on Safe Investment, and Life Complete Through Stewardship.

We trust that every church will organize study classes during the month of October leading up to Stewardship Day, November 3.

O. A. STUTZ, Secretary of Stewardship.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

We, the Committee on Resolutions, submit the following:

Be it resolved that:

1. We express gratitude to Almighty God for His providential care and guidance during the past year and this conference season, and for the joys and fellowship of our work as United Brethren in Christ.

2. We express our appreciation to our Bishop A. R. Clippinger, and our conference superintendent, Dr. D. T. Gregory, and his assistants for their devoted leadership.

3. We express our appreciation for the faithful and cooperative work of Miss Lola Leitenberger of the First Church staff, the conference stenographer.

4. We express our gratitude for the inspiration which has been brought to the conference by our guest speakers, and the platform leaders, and to those who have contributed through vocal and instrumental music.

5. We express appreciation to the First Church, the pastor, the custodian, the ladies of the church, and to those who have so generously opened their homes for our entertainment, and to the authorities of the city of Dayton for courtesy in regard to the parking of cars.

6. We, ministers and laymen, appreciate the challenging opportunities set forth in our conference policy by such enterprises as Seminary Day, Stewardship Day, Home and Foreign Missions Day, Christmas offerings, Educational Day, Young People's Anniversary Day, Children's Day, and such cooperative projects as the Leadership Training School, the summer camps, youth conferences, and district rallies.

7. We give our attention to the religious implications of such social movements as peace, temperance, and church union.

8. We appreciate the fine protection and liberty granted to the conference by the city and police department.

RESOLUTION IN REGARD TO COMMISSION FOR STUDY OF THE FORM OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENCY

In view of the fact that our present form of conference superintendency was adopted only as an emergency measure;

And in view of the fact that there is a growing conviction that we are losing out in the unity of our conference program;

And in view of the fact that, if the present form of conference superintendency is continued, the next General Conference will probably cut the per cent of Benevolences allotted to Miami Conference for operating expenses, thereby crippling our work for many years to come;

I move that a commission of five be appointed by our presiding Bishop to study all phases of the situation, including our financial ability to pay a full time superintendent, and the benefits accruing to local churches, both financial and spiritual, from a unified, aggressive, and consecrated leadership; with a view to a possible change in our form of superintendency one year hence.

S. E. RASEY.

REPORT OF POLICY COMMITTEE

We, your Committee on Policy, report as follows:

Last year, according to our denominational program, we gave special emphasis to evangelism. This year we are still going to give ourselves to an evangelistic effort, but our special emphasis will be evangelism through missions and stewardship. We therefore recommend the following to every local church:

1. That the pastor, as outlined in the denominational program of activities, call together as soon after conference as seems feasible, his officials and co-workers for a special retreat in which they will pray together and talk over the entire program for the local church during the year. And that these study carefully the program of activities and the folder, "The Church's Commission in Growth and Service," and intercede with God for the presence and the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit in all their work.

2. That every Sunday School conduct missionary worship services once a month, utilizing the new booklet "Worship Pathways," and give monthly a missionary offering to benevolences, as asked for in our Discipline.

3. That missionary and stewardship circles be formed in which available books on missions and stewardship be read carefully, discussed, and digested. "Missions at Home and Abroad" is a book for old and young, and should have intensive study. Good books on stewardship, such as "Jesus' Teaching in the Use of Money" by Brown, and "Giving Is Living" by Boand, are available, and are invaluable in the enrichment of lives, and in their dominant emphasis upon God's ownership and man's stewardship of all that we possess of time, talents, and money. Stewardship Day, November 3, should have general observance, and our people should be definitely challenged to accept their obligations to God and the church.

4. That September and October be observed as Loyalty and Rally months throughout the conference, and that we seek to attain the highest record possible in the Sunday school and church attendance. The conference superintendent and council should make available such helps as seem practicable. The four hundredth anniversary of the printing of the English Bible could be very appropriately celebrated on the second Sunday of October.

5. That special days and seasons, such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, Lent, Easter, Pentecost, and so forth, should be used to the utmost to awaken religious interest and zeal. We believe that Passion Week, with a universal observance of Holy Communion on Good Friday, can be made a most fruitful season in all our congregations. We commend the thoughtful and prayerful observance of the entire Lenten season and the use of the Lenten boxes or envelopes for the offerings of the people. Also that we continue to give increased emphasis to the period between Easter and Pentcost, climaxing in a great Communion service on Pentecost Sunday. We rejoice in the growing interest in summer conferences, training schools, camps, and so forth, and urge that their benefits be made available by the churches to all their people, especially to the youth. We urge also a larger use of Vacation Bible Schools in our churches.

6. That we adopt as our conference program of Christian education the program adopted by our Board of Christian Education and the Conference Council.

7. That we undertake again the raising of an amount equal to one-tenth of our benevolence quota for Bonebrake Seminary during the week of October 6-13, which will give us a total of $5,750.

8. That every church in the conference be urged to observe Education Day, and give an offering to Otterbein College equal to five cents, or more, per member, with the understanding that twenty per cent of the total will be set aside by the college as a Student Aid Fund for Students from Miami Conference. Churches which are able are asked to give beyond the goal named above.

9. That in view of the fact that a large percentage of our churches have found it difficult under present financial stringencies to meet their benevolence quotas in full, an earnest endeavor be made to have no church fall below fifty per cent, and the conference treasurer be authorized to designate as star churches all that pay fifty per cent to seventy-five per cent on their quotas each month, and that churches paying seventy-five to one hundred per cent be designated as two star churches, and those paying one hundred per cent each month be designated as three star churches, the names of the three star churches to be in bold type.

10. That we promote an Every Member Canvass, or some similar plan, for getting our people informed about the living issues depending upon our weekly contributions, and that an earnest effort be made in each church to have every member contribute regularly to the financial support of the church.

11. That we give ourselves to earnest prayer and faithful evangelistic effort throughout the year. Revivals, personal effort, and every possible means should be used to win men to Christ, and then all should be faithfully trained in Christ.

12. That pastors give themselves most loyally and diligently to their work, remembering that we are co-workers with God, and that a confused and wicked generation of people need desperately the effective ministry of the church. Our churches must not be dependencies, but saving stations and storehouses of life and power and comfort and grace.

13. That we take seriously the recommendations presented by our conference superintendent in his report to the conference, and undertake to translate them into life and experience. (See his report as printed in the Minutes.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOUNDARY AND FINANCE

The Committee on Boundary and Finance recommend the following:

1. That Miami Conference consist of one superintendent's district.
2. That the present pastoral part-time superintendency be continued.
3. That the salary of the conference superintendent be $600 per year.
4. That the conference be divided into seven group leader districts.
5. That the salary of the recording secretary be $100; of the statistical secretary $100; of each district leader, $100; and of the conference treasurer, $335.
6. That all appropriations be paid pro rata with the exception of $75 per month for interest; $100 per month on principal; $50 per month current expenses, which shall be preferred claims.
7. That the Miami Conference Council of Administration shall consist of seven district leaders, seven associate district leaders, one of each to be appointed from each district by the stationing committee, the Bishop, conference superintendent, the conference treasurer, conference director of Christian education, president of the Miami Branch Women's Missionary Society, the editor of the Miami Messenger, and the members of the Board of Conference Trustees.
8. That the conference authorize the treasurer to close the books for this conference year on the Thursday after the last Sunday in August and that the statistical secretary be instructed to make his benevolence item in the minutes conform to the treasurer's record.
9. That an offering be lifted each evening to defray conference expenses.
10. That the Conference Council meet quarterly, or at the call of the Bishop or superintendent.
11. That the reports required from pastors be prepared accurately and fully and sent promptly to the district leaders who shall report the same at once to the superintendent. The district leader shall report quarterly in the Miami Messenger the names of pastors who fail to report properly and promptly. Pastors who fail to send their reports to the statistical secretary by the time appointed shall be required to explain their tardiness to the annual conference.
12. That the following Otterbein College scholarship awards be granted:
   a. To William Mesmer the Willey Memorial Church scholarship, subject to the approval of the church;
   b. To Dorothy Allsup the Christian Endeavor scholarship;
   c. To Frances Ward the Kurtz scholarship;
   d. To Harold Nichols and Evan Wolfe $42.00 each from the Education Day Offerings.
13. That the request of the quarterly conference of First Church, Cincinnati, that they be merged with Second Church, Cincinnati, be referred to the Conference Board of Trustees for further study; they to report to the Conference Council of Administration, which shall have power to act.

14. That Springboro and Oregonia constitute the Springboro-Oregonia charge.

15. That the benevolence quotas be assigned to the churches as follows:
